Largest Japanese Staffing Firm in the US

Using "live information" on employment, economy, and trends in each city/region we obtain from our nationwide network, we are committed to providing practical advice tailored to your professional development.

Many Job Opportunities

From entry-level J/E bilingual and non-bilingual positions to accounting/HR/general affairs, sales, engineering, and executive-level job opportunities, we provide thorough consultation and introduce positions that match your goals and background.

Employment Support in Japan

With the establishment of Interesse International Japan, we are one of the few employment agencies that can "recruit internationally". In Japan, skilled J/E bilingual applicants are in high demand and hiring by overseas business divisions has become very competitive. We can help you find a position in Japan while you are in the US.

Comprehensive Services

Improved Job Navigator®

Using iiicareer's industry leading recruitment database, we quickly find suitable positions for you.

Job Interview Follow-Up

We will follow up with you on your job interview and communicate with the hiring company on your behalf. If there is a difficult subject to discuss with them directly, we will ask them for you.

Job Offer Negotiation

After a job offer has been extended, we will negotiate salary and compensation with the hiring company.

First Day Follow-Up and Beyond

Your consultant will follow up with you on your first day of work and beyond to make sure the process is going well and you are satisfied with the job. Your consultant will be happy to answer any questions or address any concerns.
